Why this Course/Benefits of the course:-

Comprehensive Curriculum

Substantial emphasis on including the views, experience and requirements of the industry in the design, content and development of the MEL curriculum.

Intensive industry consultation has proven successful in attracting top students and in gaining recognition of MEL as the leading MSc in the sector.

Following extensive industry consultation, MEL has compiled a curriculum of 15 modules.

The modules comprise a holistic and tightly knitted, integrated, approach to the understanding and analysis of global maritime supply chains of production-transport-distribution, where ocean transportation and port- and terminal management play a pivotal role.

Top Lecturers

MEL lecturers are a mixture of Erasmus University members and successful businessmen and -women to ensure that MEL students are instructed by both entrepreneurs and academics.

A number of MEL lecturers have been nominated for and received awards.
