Faculties & School:-

Nicola Pryce-Roberts

Senior Lecturer

Prior to lecturing at Solent University, Nicola worked as a lawyer and before that in a number of operational and managerial roles for A.P. Moller/Maersk Line and Hamburg Süd.

Dr Alexandros Dimitriadis

Lecturer

After studying for an undergraduate degree in maritime administration from the University of Piraeus, Greece, Alexandros pursued his studies in Lyon, France, where he obtained a second undergraduate degree, a master's and a doctorate in finance. Joining Solent allowed him to combine two disciplines that fascinate him as well as to teach more applied subjects.

Accreditations:-

Times Higher Education Most Improved Student Experience Award

In 2015 the University won the Most Improved Student Experience Award at the Times Higher Education Awards. The award is based on student votes from the Times Higher Education's Student Experience Survey, where up to 20,000 students are polled by a specialist student market research agency to rate academic reputation, teaching, social life and facilities of their universities.

Chartered Institute of Public Relations (CIPR) regional PRide Community Relations award

In November 2017 Solent's Showcase Gallery's Small Faces Exhibition won the CIPR regional PRide Community Relations award. The exhibition saw over 7,000 postcard sized self-portraits drawn by people of all ages and walks of life – from 2 to 92 – and every submission was displayed.
